

Rosa Alba

Organic flower water

The water is distilled from fresh blossoms of white roses, grown in ecologically-clean area near the village of Tarnichene, region of Kazanlak. The rose plantations and soils are not treated with pesticides, artificial fertilizers or other synthetic preparations.

The water from the blossoms of Rosa alba has a soothing and anti-inflammatory effect on rash and skin irritation. It cleanses, softens, moisturizes and scents the skin.

