

Queen Rose

Body lotion

A balanced formula that regulates the functions of the sensitive body skin. This lotion stimulates skin's regeneration by smoothing and revitalizing it. It creates a feeling of silky softness thanks to the anti-inflammatory and regenerating properties of the rose essential oil and rose concrete in combination with the moisturizing properties of the extract from marshmallow. The licorice extract relieves allergenic reactions when such have appeared, regulates water and salt metabolism and improves skin's breathing. Application
