Hair and body shampoo

Hair and body shampoo with the warm fragrance of cedar wood, fresh citrus and spices. It contains Green tea extract with toning, conditioning and antioxidant action. The shampoo restores the vitality and shine of hair. Skin is hydrated and softened. Suitable for everyday use.

The product contains:

Green tea extract - It has gained wide popularity throughout the world due to its extremely beneficial qualities, which are due to the antioxidants called polyphenols, that it contains. These are mainly catechins. Thanks to these ingredients, green tea extract acts favorably against harmful effects of the UV rays, protects against skin premature aging, and has an anti-inflammatory effect.
